

Age: 17, Grade: 12

School Name: Indi A i

My words spill out because I should be the one forgetting you
I should be the one climbing over the mountains
So impossible to reach over
They are your legacy
You are blind and yet cannot hear us either
Cannot feel or taste what exactly it is
Why we regained our own time
Ceasing the waste that it was on you