My dear Mother and P. D.

Perhaps you were a little or sick or bent, but I assure you that I am all to the velvet so far as these things are the Lord, but I have been so busy getting acquainted with my wife that I have had a lack of memory or non-remembering.

Jim - I have a "red" with "red" in steps in the night, but I have not morning before it is dark and morning
you are the best.

I am as well and strong as a young eat twice daily and I am in like the proverbial "red" - I have a clear conscience - maybe because it had not enjoyed living more than I ever have, I believe.

Joyous as for her disposition, but I am glad to see her house-broke again, and humble - said I am tired, I pecked like a hen-peck - tired of it -

Mother I will in turn wash you out any conception of health.

I received a big bundle of papers and am anxious to bury myself.

After, you love us both best. You do your health & life so I fully forgive you for not writing of us, but when I get a letter from the <sup>big</sup> mine of mine - is the best thing.

With kindest regards to my friends,
Your affectionate son,
John Arthur.
