with and my stomachs think it like C. C. B. was a stomach's few years back.

humor and looked about waiting for our own little family dinner, for which the girls served us up a fine baked turkey with chestnut stuffing, chicken salad with the usual dressing on it; gravy, the thick, good kind, cabbage, cauliflower, carrots, and in it, pie, I think it was a grapes - and of course potatoes, hearts and best of all, cranberry sauce - um! um! um! I sure did enjoy myself.
We had to go to the bank with us, a Captain and his wife, and the Captain ate so much of it, made him except, drawing. I had not a notion dreams of it myself. "I will use my good feasting & the time of the

With much love to you both
