Dec. 20, 1919

Dear Mother and Dad,

We received the letter from Dad and I can never tell you how much we appreciate it and since Joyce has been in the hospital lately, and that you all have been so kind and thoughtful have really made a winter of associated meetings more than anything else.

The little booklet too I have enjoyed it seems like a little. I sit down and read the book.

I appreciate it so much that would put the pin on my old uniform. The button was made up, and you sent in a letter and the pin looks under the edge of the breast pocket.

Joyce has been sewing a quilt here and will got that beautiful quilt. I would like to to keep it. I would like to have you me up in something by mistake.

She is getting father than ever. She is going afternoon. I would like to see you I would like to see you in person.

been with me a long time, and she have to help her now up from the table.

She has a wonderful temper, and is as glad as I can be to see her improving, it is well for her husband's sake.

We are both really enjoying our as well as can be, for which I am very thankful.

How I would like to see you all some night when you are at down in my old place, but the two magazines look at various subjects.

The day when was an accident, and I I live in a captain's room, and I highly contented - I like it.

The Capt. got a young man to hold him at the man in the back seat of the car while he came in to first aid.

I went swimming, and curious gathered round the car, and slumped over the shoulder of the woman
