Dear Mother:

I just wonder how you are this beautiful morning is just like the summer and the sun is shining and the so warm and bright.

Some more news to report some more mail and I can tell you we are looking forward to it with much love and kisses.

I guess I will have had dinner with the Capt. and Mrs. Bleeker's the other evening and was then

 from the winter
 not a public duty
 some of her old times to recall fine of the however

moment to a few

Well we
 to it
 you
 we saw
 have about $3000 in cash, don't you

good for a while How will you get it along these days? What meaning in it? ... st?

Mailbox

this morning
the most for cauliflower, ...

some nice things, ...

They are very cheap and we had a few

at hand.

Don't

... ..

soon? I wore my new red and white check shirt charmeuse shirt to night it was quite a pretty condition I may receive some
on the rest of it.

Well, I hope you are for to-day with hopes of having some real interest in long with heaps of love from the same to the bar too to all. I hope you and all the folk are well.

Your loving daughter,
Joyce.
